

Home business

SHOWCASING INNOVATIONS... (From left) Malaysian Invention and Design Society advisor, and senior fellow and founding president of Academy of Sciences Malaysia Professor Emeritus Tan Sri Dr Omar Abdul Rahman; Deputy Minister of Science, Technology and Innovation Datuk Dr Abu Bakar Mohamad Diah; and C.I.S Network Sdn Bhd president Datuk Vincent Lim at the official launch of Invention Asia magazine at the 25th International Invention, Innovation and Technology Exhibition, which was held in Kuala Lumpur from May 8 to 10. The exhibition showcased innovations and technologies by key local and international players from various sectors.

WEEK IN FOCUS

1 (From left) DiGi.Com Bhd chief financial officer Karl Erik Broten, chief executive officer Henrik Clausen and chairman Sigve Brekke after the group annual general meeting on May 14 in Kuala Lumpur. DiGi announced that it is aiming to grow its total business revenue by between 4% and 6% for the financial year ending Dec 31, 2014. — Photo by Mohd Izwan Mohd Nazam

2 Felda Global Ventures Holdings Bhd (FGV) chairman Tan Sri Mohd Isa Abdul Samad (fourth from left) at the ribbon cutting ceremony commemorating his visit to the Twin Rivers Technologies Entreprises de Transformation de Graines Oléagineuses du Québec (TRT ETGO) plant in Quebec, Canada, on May 15. Looking on are FGV group president and chief executive officer Mohd Emir Mavani Abdullah (third from left) and representatives of TRT ETGO and FGV. FGV acquired TRT in 2007 and became the sole investor in the TRT ETGO project. TRT specialises in the production of fatty acids, biodiesel, omega-3, and other oleo-chemicals.

3 AirAsia Bhd chief executive officer (CEO) Aireen Omar (second from left) with Interpol secretary-general Roland K Noble (centre) and AirAsia X Bhd CEO Azran Osman-Rani at AirAsia's operations